Rome

On the first floor, the expansive Rome meeting room is ideal for large-scale events including conferences, gala dinners and fashion shows. With a 4.2-metre ceiling and accents of wood, marble and textiles, it's an impressive space with built-in sound system, projectors and screens. The Rome meeting room can be connected with the Venice and Prague venues – both with natural light – enlarging the seating capacity to 600 people. Rome also connects with a three-story foyer with floor-to-ceiling windows and the 240-sqm second-floor hanging corridor provides additional space for coffee breaks, exhibitions or other activities.

Red Salon

As you step into the Red Salon, you are immediately transported to a world of sophistication and charm. The salon's design combines elements of Neo-Gothic and Renaissance styles, featuring intricate woodwork, ornate ceilings, and lavish furnishings. The dominant colour scheme of deep red and gold accents adds to the room's dramatic ambience, creating an atmosphere of regal splendour.

The salon's layout is thoughtfully arranged to accommodate various functions and events, from sophisticated banquets to intimate private parties, from grand gala dinners to romantic wedding ceremonies or captivating art exhibitions, the Red Salon provides an exquisite setting that leaves a lasting impression on guests.
